IRREPLACEABLE
A film by Thomas Lilti
SYNOPSIS

For the past thirty years, Dr. Jean-Pierre Werner has been working as a general practitioner in the countryside, far away from any other medical facility.

When he finds out that he suffers from a serious illness, Werner is left with no choice but to find a replacement, although he considers himself irreplaceable...
BIOGRAPHY OF THE DIRECTOR

Thomas Lilti

Before graduating from medical school, Thomas Lilti directed three shorts, Quelques heures en hiver, Après l’enfance and Roue libre. He is an atypical filmmaker because he continued to practice as a primary-care physician alongside his work as a writer and director. In recent years, he has developed numerous projects for TV and cinema, including his own debut feature, Blindfolded (Les yeux bandés), starring Guillaume Depardieu, which was released in 2008 and Hippocrates, which was the closing film at the Cannes Critics’ Week in 2014.

He also co-wrote Télé Gauche with Michel Leclerc, and Mariage à Mendoza with Edouard Deluc.
